The status of VA New York/New Jersey Health Care Network facilities

VA has work hard to re-open our health care facilities since Tuesday morning when the severe weather from Hurricane Sandy passed through our area.

Below is the status of all VA Medical Centers and VA Community Based Outpatient Clinics in VA New York and New Health Care Network. Please call your facility to reschedule an appointment that was missed. If the facility where you receive care is not open, call the nearest facility to be seen.

Please bear with us as some facilities continue to experience intermittent telephone overloads.

Community Clinics are open Monday-Friday 8AM to 4:30PM and closed weekends and holidays.

VA is ready to serve you.
